

SENATE RESOLUTION 121

By Kyle

A RESOLUTION to urge the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association to sanction trap and skeet shooting as a competitive sport on the high school level.

WHEREAS, Tennessee has a long and proud legacy of producing outstanding high school sports teams in the traditional athletic competitions of track and field, football, basketball and baseball; and

WHEREAS, over the years, new sporting competitions at the high school level have been added as dictated by societal interest and popularity, including golf, tennis, swimming, soccer, and bowling; and

WHEREAS, today, one of the fastest growing competitive sports in the nation is trap and skeet shooting, with a number of states offering sanctioned championships at the high school level, including Georgia, Louisiana, North Carolina, Ohio, Vermont, Maine, Rhode Island, Alaska, and Hawaii; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY, that we hereby urge the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association to investigate the feasibility of sanctioning trap and skeet shooting as a competitive sport on the high school level and request that they report their findings to the Senate Education Committee on February 1, 2007.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an enrolled copy of this resolution be transmitted to the TSSAA.
